An Ordinance.
To Raise Supplies for the Year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-eight, for the Town of Newberry:

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Intendant and Wardens, in Town Council assembled, That there shall be raised and paid into the Treasury of the Town (for the use thereof, in current expenditures and discharge of liabilities already incurred) a tax for the sums hereinafter specified, to be paid on or before the 31st day of March ensuing, and in the manner following, that is to say:

Ten cents on every hundred dollars, of the value of all real estate held on the 1st of January, 1888, except such as may be owned as an agricultural interest.

Ten cents on every hundred dollars, of all sales of goods, wares and merchandise, on personal account or otherwise.

Ten cents on every hundred dollars, of all gross income and gross profits, derived from and resulting from, in the use, practice or exercise of any office, faculty or profession, employment or occupation, embracing Dentistry and excepting the Clergy.

Fifty cents, on every hundred dollars, of all commissions received by brokers, factors, auctioneers, commission merchants, dealers in exchange or other real estate, in the purchase, sale or conveyance of property, real or personal, on commission.

Fifty cents, on every hundred dollars of all premiums received by insurance agents.

Twenty-five cents, on every hundred dollars of all rents, dividends, interest, on interest, securities, and investments, over five hundred dollars.

Fifty cents, on every hundred dollars of all gross income, derived from keeping a hotel, or eating house.

Two dollars and fifty cents, on every hundred dollars of all gross receipts, of all keepers of taverns and bar-rooms, whether such bar-room be connected with a hotel or not.

Fifty cents, on every hundred dollars of all gross receipts of all keepers of saloons, whether such saloon be connected with a hotel or not.

Two dollars and fifty cents, on every hundred dollars of all sales, by drovers and dealers, of horses and mules, brought to the Town. One dollar, on every carriage, barney, wagon or other vehicle, drawn by one horse or mule, for 1888.

Two dollars, on every carriage, buggy, wagon or other vehicle drawn by two horses or mules, for 1888.

Ten dollars on every dry, cart or wagon, running for hire, charge or profit, and drawn by two horses or mules, for 1888.

Two dollars and fifty cents, on every hundred dollars of all sales of goods, brought to the Town by any person, or persons, non-resident, whether such sale be made by sample or otherwise.

Section 2. If any person or persons shall fail or neglect, to make to the Treasurer of the Town, a full and true return of his, her or their, taxable property as embraced in section 1st, under this ordinance, then, and after failure to pay the same, within the period of ten days, execution shall issue and lodge with the sheriff of the District, against such person, or persons, so in default: provided, however, that any person or persons appearing before the Council for relief, or in mitigation of the additional tax or penalty.

Section 3. That all Ordinances and parts of ordinances, repugnant hereto, be and the same are hereby repealed. Ratified in Town Council of Newberry, the 15th day of February, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

AGENTS TO SELL

Dr. William Smith's

DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE.

It contains OVER ONE THOUSAND closely printed, double column, octavo pages, from new electrotypes plates, on good paper, and is appropriately illustrated with over TWO HUNDRED engravings on STEEL AND WOOD, and a series of fine authentic maps.

It is highly commended by all learned and eminent men, by the press generally, throughout the country, and is the best book of its kind in the English language.

Do not be Deceived.

Owing to the unprecedented popularity of this work, a small English abridgment adapted to juvenile readers, in duodecimo form, of about 600 pages, has been reprinted by another firm in large type, and spread over 800 octavo pages, evidently by making a book larger than its original, to give the impression that it is our edition.

To those who desire our juvenile edition, we will, early in March, furnish the English work, far superior to the American, at $2.75 per copy. Send for circulars giving full particulars. S. S. CRANTON & CO., Publishers, 126 Astor Place, Hartford, Conn.
